

CHALK TALK

Approximately 46 million retirees, survivors and people with disabilities rely on Social Security. Nearly two in three (64 percent) workers and almost half of those with disabilities (48 percent) count on Social Security for at least 50 percent of their income.